Australian Re-entry Permits.

You may extend Australian re-entry permits held by Allied or friendly nationals provided that the permits are not extended beyond two years from the date of expiry and that any such extension will not allow the holders to be absent from Australia for a period longer than they resided in the Commonwealth.

Permits extended under this authority should be endorsed:-

"Authority for the holder to re-enter Australia is extended until.....subject to the extension fee being paid to the Immigration Authorities on arrival in Australia."

A fee of 10s. is payable by the applicant in respect of each year or portion of a year for which the validity of a Re-entry Permit is extended.

Applications received from persons for re-admission to Australia, not covered by this authority, should be referred to The Secretary, Department of Immigration, Canberra, A.C.T., although cases of persons resident in Europe where an Australian Representative is not available should be referred to the Chief Migration Officer, Australia House, Strand, London, W.C.2
